

A.M.SHAIKH HOMOEOPATHIC MEDICAL COLLEGE BELAGAVI IS THE 1ST HOMOEOPATHIC COLLEGE IN NORTH KARNATAKA TO SIGN MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING WITH CENTRAL COUNCIL FOR RESEARCH IN HOMOEOPATHY

Central Council for research in Homoeopathy, New Delhi had organized international convention on Homoeopathy to commemorate Dr. Samuel Hahnemann's birth anniversary on 10th & 11th April 2018 at Vidnyan Bhavan, New Delhi.

A.M.Shaikh Homoeopathic Medical College Belagavi is the only Homoeopathic College selected from North Karnataka to sign Memorandum of Understanding with Central Council for Research in Homoeopathy, New Delhi for collaborative research. For the next 3 years CCRH, New Delhi will be extending technical assistance and training to the faculty and PG students of A.M.Shaikh Homoeopathic College in Research Activities. The college will provide infrastructure, instruments and human resources to CCRH to carry out collaborative research.

The convention was inaugurated by Shri. Venkaiah Naidu, Hon'ble Vice President of India. Shri Shripad Naik, Hon'ble Minister for AYUSH, Department of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India, Dr. Rajoria, a Homoeopath & Member of Parliament, Dr. Raj Manchanda, Director General, CCRH, New Delhi, Dr. Ranjee sing, President CCH, New Delhi, Dr. Arun Bhasme, Vice-President, CCH, New Delhi were present during the occasion.

The 2 day event witnessed around 2000 delegates and organized various scientific sessions, paper presentation, and research review workshops.