

DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY MEDICINE CONDUCTED FIELD VISIT TO M. K. HUBLI

Primary Health Centre

(MICROSCOPIC VIEW OF TUBERCULOSIS ORGANISM)

On 08th of March 2022 the Department of Community Medicine conducted a field visit to Primary Health Centre & Sub Centre M. K. Hubli for 57 students of 2017 batch as a curriculum activity of R.G.U.H.S.

Dr. Mareed medical officer of the health centre introduced the staff of PHC & guided the team of students by addressing them in detail about the PHC which works 24*7 & covers 24,000 population & consists of 4 Sub Centers attached to it. He briefed about his duties & responsibilities as a Medical officer. Each staff member i.e. (ANM, ASHA, ANGANWADI WORKER, PHARMACIST, NURSES) spoke of their duties & working patterns. They demonstrated the ANC card & the information contained. Dr. Mareed gave information about the various schemes given by the government of Karnataka to the people & also showed the various sections of the health centre which included a Pharmacy, O.P.D. sections, Dressing room, male & female medical wards (I.P.D.), O.B.G (I.P.D.) attached with a labour room, surgical ward.

The batch was accompanied by Dr. V.R. KULKARNI HOD, Department of Community Medicine & Dr. Manjunath Oulkar Assistant Professor Department of Community Medicine.