

CONGRATULATIONS TO DR. MUHILAN SEMPARUTHI, PG-SCHOLAR OF A . M. SHAIKH HOMOEOPATHIC MEDICAL COLLEGE.

Dr. Muhilan Semparuthi, PG-Scholar from A. M. Shaikh Homoeopathic Medical College, Dept of Practice of Medicine presented his case in the Forum on “Complicated Acute Cystitis with Significant Growth of Unspecified Escherichia Coli associated with severe Vaginitis” that was treated efficiently with a single dose of Sepia 200 through classical approach. Among 56 Case Presentations, Dr. Muhilan’s Case presentation was awarded the SECOND PRIZE along with mementos and a cash reward.

The 15th Annual Case Presentation contest was organized by the BEACON FOUNDATION in the SNTD Auditorium, Santa Cruz, WEST MUMBAI. Beacon Foundation is a pioneer Organization that has been working on the betterment of homoeopathic medical science across various states for more than 20 years. For the Case presentation contest, participants from different parts of the country had participated.

The Management, Staff and Students of A. M. Shaikh Homoeopathic Medical College, congratulated Dr. Muhilan for his achievement.