

SHAIKH HOMOEOPATHIC MEDICAL COLLEGE CELEBRATED

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

Based on the theme EMBRACE EQUITY Department of Organon of Medicine led by Professor Dr Fauzia.M. Ansari celebrated INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY at Shaikh Campus Nehru Nagar Belgaum. Chief Guest on the occasion was Smt. J. Jayabharathi (IRS) Additional Commissioner Central GST& Customs. Dr. Nuti welcomed the Gathering.

Chief Guest spoke about growing collectively as a nation in order to reach our goal of Constitution of being a sovereign socialist secular and democratic republic. She also related Homoeopathic principles in its true essence to embrace equity.

Students of Shaikh Homoeopathic Medical College enacted a skit about Perceiving Materia medica drug personality through the evolution of a female life from her birth to her old age.

There was a Question Answer session for the male audience where in each one got chance to express about how they perceive women's day and women in their life. Dr. Elizabeth presented on Inspiring Indian female Role models who have set an example. She also briefed about Importance of Women's Day and present statistics about gender inequality. Dr. Fauzia introduced the Chief Guest and Dr. V.V. Vernekar Director, gave the presidential remarks on the occasion.

The audience enjoyed the program and was a great learning experience. The event was well supported by Management, Staff and Students.