

BELGAUM INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES DEGREE COLLEGE CELEBRATED “SAVITRIBAI PHULE JAYANTI”

Belgaum Institute Of Management Studies Degree College celebrated “Savitribai Phule Jayanti”.

The first Indian woman teacher, Savitribai Phule, was born on January 3, 1831, in the Maharashtra town of Naigaon, which is in the Satara District. She was not just a teacher but also a poet and social reformer who was instrumental in the advancement of women's rights in India. She is also acknowledged as a pioneer in the feminist movement in India.

In 19th-century India, she was a well-known social reformer and influential figure in the field of education. In recognition of her groundbreaking efforts to further women's education, especially during a period when such concepts were groundbreaking, the day is observed as Women's Education Day.

All faculty members are joined for this celebrations. Principal Miss.Roopa Sakri had given a speech on Jayanti.
