

BELGAUM INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES DEGREE COLLEGE CELEBRATED “AMBEDKAR JAYANTI”

Belgaum Institute Of Management Studies celebrated “Ambedkar Jayanti” on account of birth anniversary of 'Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar', famously known as 'Babasaheb Ambedkar', who was an Indian jurist, economist, social reformer, and politician and is best known as the chief architect of the Indian Constitution.

On this day, people remember the contributions of Babasaheb Ambedkar and pay respect by laying flowers, lighting candles, and holding cultural event. Ambedkar Jayanti or Bhim Jayanti is celebrated on 14 April to commemorate the memory of B. R. Ambedkar, Indian politician and social reformer. It marks Ambedkar's birthday who was born on 14 April 1891. His birthday is also referred to as 'Equality Day'.

It is celebrated throughout the world especially by dalits, adivasi, labour workers, women and also those who embraced Buddhism after his example. In India, large numbers of people visit local statues commemorating Ambedkar in procession with lot of fanfare.

“Vice Principal Prof. S.B.Hunshyal had taken national pledge to students on this celebration and highlighted various aspects of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's life. Ambedkar's struggle against caste discrimination and his pivotal role in drafting the Indian Constitution, Ambedkar's educational journey, activism for Dalit rights, and his enduring influence on modern India. Together, their perspectives offer valuable insights into the complexities of Ambedkar's life and his profound impact on Indian society.” And some students had given speech. And this celebration is organized by Lect. Laxmi Kamble and Akshay Kamble.
